

I am in opposition to passengers using cell phones during flight. As a flight attendant, I feel it is potentially a hazard and may create problems in communication with the passengers should there be an emergency on the aircraft.